

The Hartford Friends & Enemies
of Wallace Stevens Announce...

The Tenth Annual Wallace Stevens Scholarship Competition for College Bound High School Juniors and Seniors who live in Hartford or Hartford residents who attend a Connecticut public community college

AWARD: A $1,000 scholarship and a clothbound copy of Stevens' Poems

HOW TO APPLY:

Send (4) pages of typed poetry along with a typed cover sheet stating the following information:
applicant's name, address, telephone number,
name of high school or community college currently attending,
and the titles of the poems submitted.

Your name SHOULD NOT appear on three (3) pages of the poetry.

Completed applications are due on April 1, 2012

and must be sent to:

Dennis Barone, Professor of English

Saint Joseph College

1678 Asylum Avenue

West Hartford, CT 06117

Wallace Stevens is ranked with William Carlos Williams, T.S. Eliot, and Marianne Moore

as one of America's foremost poets of the twentieth century.

He enjoyed a long and successful career as an executive of the

Hartford Accident and Indemnity Company and lived in Hartford for many years.

The goal of the Hartford Friends and Enemies of Wallace Stevens is to encourage greater understanding of, and appreciation for, this major literary figure in the city that was his home.

The Friends & Enemies create public programs that celebrate poetry and encourage its enjoyment by Hartford-area residents.

START WRITING YOUR POEMS TODAY!

The Hartford Friends & Enemies

Of Wallace Stevens